

Helping Our Churches Become Communities of Change
Steve Midgley

Heading home—what now?

1. Change starts with me.

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.
(Ephesians 4:2)

2. Change needs all of us.

From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work. (Ephesians 4:16)

3. Change means speaking side by side.

Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is Christ. (Ephesians 4:15)
